

About Elizabeth E. George, M.A.

How is it possible for an award-winning businesswoman and world class athlete like Elizabeth George to have been so unsuccessful in her first two attempts at marriage?

After all, her selection as a “Top 40 Business Executive Under the Age of 40” reflected a remarkably capable and competent professional. She excelled as a business owner, economic development and tourism consultant, and university professor whose credentials included a master’s degree in Human Resource Management and certification as a Christian lay counselor.

Her company, Compatibility Solutions Inc., was created to help people choose and build great relationships, whether in business or in their personal life. To top it off, she competed for five years with the U.S. International Shooting Team, was World Champion in Crossbow, and was even awarded the United States Government’s coveted Distinguished International Shooter Badge, its highest award for marksmanship. So how could she have so badly missed the mark when it comes to love?

She failed in love because she fell in love with the wrong men for the wrong reasons. That discovery was the turning point in her life, the end of false choices that left her lonely, and the beginning of a forever marriage to husband and co-author Darren George. Elizabeth and Darren’s meeting and courtship weren’t storybook or flawless—they met through Match.com and even broke up for a while soon after they started dating—but their forever marriage is built on a code so powerful and reliable, they know they’re both in it for good.
